

RESOLUTION NUMBER 332

WHEREAS, the issue of City of St. Louis employee benefits and salaries is of great concern to this Board of Aldermen and many city residents; and

WHEREAS, this Board is empowered to enact legislation related to City Employees; and

WHEREAS, the St. Louis Fire Department employs approximately 900 personnel, which includes Firefighters, EMTs, Paramedics, and civilians; and

WHEREAS, there are more than 1300 St. Louis Police Department officers and staff; and

WHEREAS, there are approximately 3500 civil service city employees; and

WHEREAS, the City of St. Louis Personnel Department is responsible for implementing Article XVIII of the City Charter and for administering the Civil Service System; and

WHEREAS, the personnel department is responsible for staffing the various City departments through effective recruiting, testing, and certifying of eligible candidates to selecting officials; for properly classifying City jobs, for establishing pay policy and appropriate recognition and reward programs; for effectively training City employees; and for administering the City's Employees Retirement System and various benefit programs; and

WHEREAS, the personnel department also counsels operating officials and City employees on all personnel-related matters; and

WHEREAS, the personnel department also negotiates with area labor unions and associations on behalf of the city; and

WHEREAS, frequently, negotiations by the personnel department requires legislation to be considered and passed the St. Louis Board of Aldermen, and

WHEREAS, the most recent legislation before the Board related to the personnel department contract negotiations seemed to cause much frustration by various employee unions; and

WHEREAS, during the consideration of this legislation many questions were raised about the process of negotiations used by the personnel department, and

WHEREAS, it is imperative that the St Louis Board of Aldermen have a full understanding and comprehension of the contract negotiation process between the city and various labor organizations, including the process most recently used, to help in the consideration of future legislation related to personnel department negotiations.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Aldermen for the City of St. Louis that we direct the Public Employees Committee to convene hearings for the purpose of examining the issue of city employee contract negotiations and related matters in the City of St. Louis and we further direct the committee to include in such discussion the Director of Personnel for the City of St. Louis and all other parties deemed appropriate by the Public Employees Committee.
